

Great Way to California

via the Pacific Northwest

SEATTLE

SPOKANE

LOFTY MT. RAINIER looks over Seattle and Tacoma.

TOWERING PEAKS in Glacier National Park in the Montana Rockies.

MINNEAPOLIS
ST. PAUL

PORTLAND

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE is only one of the fascinating sights awaiting travelers in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO

LOS ANGELES

Rail Fare to San Francisco is no more on Great Northern's incomparable Great Dome

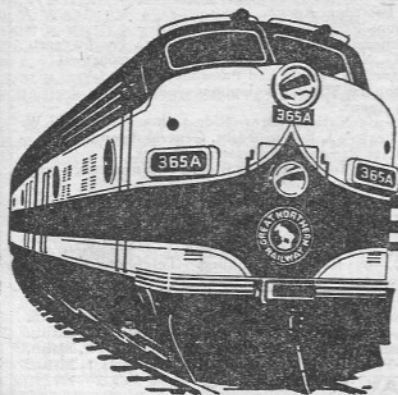

EMPIRE BUILDER

To delight travel-experienced patrons who are planning a fall trip to California, suggest that they route themselves via the Pacific Northwest.

Great Northern's EMPIRE BUILDER, now with Great Domes for both coach and Pullman passengers, takes the northern route across the nation—more than two thousand miles of truly superb scenery.

Your patrons will thank you for sending them on a route where they can see the Mississippi River Palisades, Glacier National Park, the Rocky Mountains of Montana and Idaho, the Cascades of Washington and Oregon.

Connections with fine trains to and from California in Seattle or Portland. Rail fare from Chicago to San Francisco is no more via Great Northern.

For information:-
P. G. Holmes
Passenger Traffic Manager
Great Northern Railway
St. Paul 1, Minnesota

